Change of name evidence

If not already provided from the list at Table A, please provide evidence of your name in current use dated within the last year, and at least one of the following for each change of name that has taken place:

- Marriage certificate
- Civil partnership certificate
- Gender recognition certificate
- Enrolled deed poll
- Change of name deed signed in both your old and new names
- Certificate of naturalisation or registration
- Statutory declaration or affidavit signed in your new name
- Birth certificate \(upon re-registration\)
- Certificate from the Court of the Lord Lyon of Scotland
- Completed PD2 form for those about to marry or form a civil partnership (see www.gov.uk/changing-passport-information).

If you are going back to your maiden or unmarried name, we also need all of the following:

- A signed statement saying that you now use your maiden name for all purposes
- Your birth certificate and either:
- A decree absolute showing both names or
- A marriage certificate showing both names

If you are changing the spelling of your name slightly (for example, Bryan to Brian), changing the order in which your forenames appear in your passport or dropping a forename, you must provide either:

- One document from the list above as evidence of your name change, and one document from Table A as evidence of your name in current use, or
- Two documents from Table A as evidence of your name in current use

To change the name of a child on a passport, you must provide evidence that everyone who has parental responsibility for the child has given permission to change the child's name. If this can't be supplied, you must send a court order allowing the name change.
