

Fill in this form if you are applying for a child's first passport, and one or both of the child's parents live in a different country to the child.

We may need to interview one or both of the child's parents (or anyone else who has parental responsibility) to verify the child's identity and nationality. If the parents live in different cities or countries, it may be possible to arrange the interviews in different locations, including in the UK.

So we can arrange the interviews in your preferred location, please provide contact details of the parent who does not live at the address already provided in the child's passport application.
